BEEF DIRECT AND COMMERCIAL INDIRECT PURCHASER ANTITRUST CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENTS

Case History

Since 2019, class action lawsuits were filed in the District of Minnesota on behalf of the Direct Purchaser Class and Indirect Commercial Purchaser Class alleging the Defendants and their co-conspirators conspired to reduce the supply of beef thereby increasing the price of beef sold in the United States in violation of federal antitrust laws.

The Direct Purchaser Class entered into a settlement with JBS for approximately $52.5 million. The Court granted certification of that settlement class and final approval of that settlement (the claim deadline for that settlement was March 4, 2024).

The Indirect Commercial Purchaser Class entered into a settlement with JBS ($25 million) and Tyson ($47 million). The JBS settlement received final approval, and the Tyson settlement is pending preliminary approval. No claim forms are available at this time and no claim filing deadline has been set by the Court.

It is impossible to predict the outcome of the remaining litigations; however, it is possible that more money may become available to Eligible Class Members if additional settlements are reached with the remaining Defendants.

"Defendants":

The following is a list of Defendants included in at least one of the class action complaints:

Cargill, Inc. and Cargill Meat Solutions Corporation (a/k/a Cargill Protein)	National Beef Packing Company
JBS S.A.; JBS Packerland, Inc.; Swift Beef Company; JBS USA Food Company (collectively, "JBS")	Tyson Foods, Inc.; Tyson Fresh Meats, Inc. (collectively, "Tyson")
