ANTITRUST CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

Case History

Commencing in 2015, class action lawsuits were filed alleging the Defendants and their co-conspirators entered into and engaged in a horizontal contract, combination, or conspiracy in restraint of trade to restrict competition in the dealer-to-client IRS market and to jointly boycott entities that would introduce competition on IRS bid/ask spreads in the United States in violation of federal antitrust laws. These cases were later consolidated in the At this time, the class has entered into a settlement with Credit Suisse in the total amount of $25 million. The settlement is pending preliminary Court approval. The settlement funds (less any expenses and fees) will be distributed to the Class if and when the class is certified, final approval is granted and after the claims process is completed. The litigation is currently ongoing against the remaining Defendants and it is possible that additional funds may become available to the class if any additional settlements are reached.

Definition of “U.S. IRS Transaction”: “U.S. IRS Transaction” means a fixed-for-floating, floating-for-fixed, or floating-for-floating interest rate swap, forward rate agreement, single-currency basis swap, or overnight index swap executed in the United States or its territories.

Definition of “Released Credit Suisse Parties”: “Released Credit Suisse Parties” means Settling Defendants and each of their respective past or present direct and indirect parents (including holding companies), subsidiaries, affiliates, associates (all as defined in SEC Rule 12b-2, promulgated pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended), divisions, joint ventures, predecessors, successors, and each of their respective past, present, and future officers, directors, managers, members, partners, shareholders, insurers, employees, agents, attorneys, legal or other representatives, trustees, heirs, executors, administrators, advisors, and assigns, and the predecessors, successors, heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns of each of the foregoing.

Class Counsel or the Settlement Administrator may be contacted for additional settlement information. You also may visit the Court-approved website once one is made available. Please understand that you have the right to file on your own.
