CLASS ACTION SUMMARY
LLOYD'S, LONDON SYNDICATE
CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENTS

Case History

In 2007, a class action lawsuit was filed in the Southern District of Florida alleging the Defendants violated U.S. federal laws by conspiring and engaging in a deceptive scheme to conceal the lack of competition for insurance sold in the U.S. through the Lloyd's market. Thus far, the class entered into a settlement totaling $21.95 million with the First Round Settling Defendants (the class period for that settlement ended on March 25, 2019 and the claim deadline was October 25, 2019) (the "First Round of Settlements"). Distribution of these funds will occur at a future date.

The class has also entered into a settlement with the Second Round Settling Defendants ($7.9 million), which is pending final approval (the "Second Round of Settlements"). Distribution of these funds will occur if and when final approval is granted and after the completion of a claims process. The litigation is currently ongoing against the Non-Settling Defendants, and it is possible that additional funds may become available to the class as the result of a trial or future settlements. The claim filing deadline for the second round of settlements is December 21, 2023.

Class Counsel or the Settlement Administrator may be contacted for additional settlement information.
