

Class Action Summary
Qualcomm Canada
Antitrust Class Action

This is not an official Court Notice. Information contained in this Summary is subject to change.
There is no monetary settlement at this time.

If you or your business purchased cellular telephones or other cellular devices such as computer tablets in Canada on or after January 1, 2006, civil claims alleging price fixing may affect you.

Eligible Class Members: If certified, all persons or entities in Canada, who or which, at any time from January 1, 2006 through the present, purchased cellular telephones and other cellular devices such as computer tablets.

Defendants: The following is a list of Defendants included in at least one of the civil claims: Qualcomm Incorporated and Qualcomm Technologies, Inc.

Case History: In 2017, civil claims were filed in various provinces in Canada alleging that the Defendants' anticompetitive conduct in the modern chipsets market resulted in inflated prices for cellular devices in violation of Canadian antitrust laws. Litigation is ongoing at this time. This Summary is subject to change as the litigations progress. It is impossible to predict the outcome, but money may become available to eligible class members if the classes are certified and settlements are reached with the Defendants in the future.

If a monetary settlement is obtained, information about it will be available from Class Counsel.
You also may visit the Court-approved website if and when one is established.

Please understand that you have the right to file on your own if and when there is a monetary settlement.

To learn more about our services, visit www.FRSCO.com.

The Services FRS Provides: Financial Recovery Strategies (FRS) is a class action claims management consultant; we are not a court appointed claims administrator or class counsel. If you hire FRS, FRS will work within your guidelines to manage the claims process. The services that FRS provides include the following: (i) notifying you when we believe that you may be eligible to participate in settlements likely to be valuable to you; (ii) endeavoring to enhance the likelihood that all of your eligible business units (e.g., subsidiaries, divisions, acquisitions and divestitures) are included in the claims process; (iii) to reduce the support needed from your in-house staff, providing advice on what, if any, documents need to be collected and maintained, and, when requested, assisting in that effort; (iv) when required documents are not available or are too burdensome to collect, attempting to develop innovative alternatives to satisfy documentation requirements and striving to obtain approval of those alternatives; (v) preparing, assembling and submitting your claim package, and managing it throughout the claims processing phase, including working with you to address any concerns or questions claims administrators may have; (vi) providing regular updates on the recovery process; (vii) reviewing your payment to assure that it has not been under calculated; and (viii) following up with you to assure that your recovery check is deposited. FRS's recovery specialists are always available to answer any questions you may have.

How to Retain FRS: If you wish to hire FRS to file and manage a claim on your behalf, you must return a signed Claims Management Agreement and a signed Authority to File and Manage Claims. Before doing so, it is important that you understand their terms and make sure that all information about you is correct.